

AMER M. KAYANI

Amer Kayani is the Minister Counselor for Commercial Affairs for Saudi Arabia and Bahrain based at the U.S. Embassy Riyadh. His extensive experience in the Middle East and North Africa include his role as the Regional Senior Commercial Officer for Egypt, Lebanon, and Libya, Regional Senior Commercial Officer for Turkey, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, North Cyprus, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan, Commercial Counselor in Pakistan, and Commercial Attaché in Israel. He also served as Director at the U.S. Department of Commerce's office in Hawaii, and in various positions in California and Washington, D.C. Mr. Kayani is a career member of the United States' Senior Foreign Service, Class of Minister Counselor. Previously, he held positions at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the U.S. Government Accountability Office. A recipient of the Superior Honor Awards numerous times, he was also awarded the Gold Medal and a Bronze Medal for distinguished achievements in the Federal Service. In addition, his persistent efforts for U.S. companies earned him the "IP Award for Excellence in International Intellectual Property Advocacy" from the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America (PhRMA). Mr. Kayani earned his B.A. in International Relations from the University of Southern California and Masters in Economic Development and Management from the University of Pittsburgh. His foreign languages include Arabic, Hindi, Punjabi, Turkish, and Urdu.